GENERAL RULES

- All matches are played in FIFA 17 kick off mode.
- Gamer named first in fixture always has to stand or sit on the left side facing the screen.
- The gamer named first has to play as the Home team.
- Unless express permission has been given by the LXG team, no coaching is allowed (for example, people in the audience may not advise a gamer while playing)
- No memory cards or saved games are permitted
- Controllers for each respective supported platform are supplied by LXG. It is the responsibility of all gamers to be familiar with the controller's functions and mode of operation. If a controller is defective, a gamer can pause the game and notify the officials. The officials will determine the controller status in making such a decision. If a gamer play with a defective controller, all results are nevertheless valid.
- Unnecessary pauses or delays are highly prohibited.
- Any action designed to disrupt the opposing gamer's view of the field or ability to select controlled gamers is prohibited.
- Each game will begin at its designated time and as designated on site at the tournament.
- Gamers not present at the designated start time for any match will have his match forfeited and their opponent shall be granted a 3-0 score. Gamers are encouraged to be at their match venue 30 minutes to game time.
- Gamers will be shown their designated station, shall set up the game and immediately each gamer will have 2 minutes to configure controls, line ups and settings in accordance with the rules described above under gameplay settings.
- Custom packages cannot be used nor can anything else that is not available in the in-game pause menu.
- Gamers shall be responsible for keeping track of game situation so if a game is interrupted, the situation can be restored. In all situations possible, tournament officials will monitor the game situation so that it may be restored in the event of game interruptions.
- Gamers shall raise their hands at the end of the game so an official can record their scores. Only scores reported by the officials are the official results.

GAME INTERRUPTIONS

- If a game is interrupted intentionally by any gamer (as determined by the LXG officials), the gamer will immediately be disqualified from that match.
- Notwithstanding the above, a gamer can pause the game to change strategy and/or make substitutions in the event that
  - a) A player of his team is sent off
  - b) A player of his team is injured
  - c) Before Throw ins, Free kicks, Goal kicks and Corner kicks

**Note that there will be a maximum of 1 minute to change strategy.

LXG OFFICIALS

- LXG officials will be on site to monitor all gameplay and record scores for each game.
- LXG officials will be identified by a special ID tag or by any other form as indicated at the venue.
- The decision of the LXG officials is final and binding.
